OVERVIEW

Alex is an enthusiastic paralegal with a robust background in banking and financial services. With five years of experience in the industry, Alex effectively navigates complex regulatory frameworks and provides critical support in legal matters related to banking law.

His career began as a document administrator officer, where he gained insights into banking operations and compliance. Transitioning to a paralegal role, Alex leverages his extensive knowledge of financial regulations and contract law to assist attorneys in managing cases involving financial institutions, commercial lending, and regulatory compliance.
